WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

1. A cover for massaging member on an elastic chair comprising:

an elongated body made of soft material, the elongated body having an open side with two edges, two open ends, a fastening means mounted at the open side for fastening the edges of the open side, a chamber defined in the elongated body and two openings respectively defined at the open ends when the open side is zipped up, and multiple bulges protruding from the body.

2. The cover as claimed in claim 1 wherein the fastening means is a zipper.